From an exceptional site on the Dundee Hills, adjacent to the Arcus Vineyard. The 27-year old, own-rooted Pommard clones from our 2-acre block are cropped to under 2 tons/acre. The Ana Vineyard Pinot Noir is the most approachable of our Pinot's in its youth, yet offers finesse and complexity as a result of a mature and healthy vineyard, low yields and years of experience with the site.

TASTING NOTES

Enters with bright fruit notes and a hint of foresty mushrooms in the nose. Ruby color, it is a delicious, full-bodied Pinot noir with loads of sweet Bing cherry fruit and subtle cinnamon flavors. Shows several layers, finishing with a hint of minerality followed by lovely soft palate underpinned by long, fine-grained tannins. It is already subtle and approachable, yet will benefit from cellaring 3-8 years."

REVIEWS

The Wine Spectator, May 15, 2006 – 2004 Lachini, Ana Vineyard Pinot Noir, Dundee Hills 90 POINTS

Firm and focused, with a spicy cinnamon edge to the solid blackberry, currant and mineral flavors, lingering on the slightly chewy finish. Needs time to soften. Best from 2008 through 2014. 250 cases made." – H.S.

Stephen Tanzer's International Wine Cellar, May/June 2006 – 2004 Lachini 'Ana Vineyard' Pinot Noir 88 POINTS

Light red. Spicy red berries on the nose, with notes of white pepper, cardamom and mint. A fresh, racy wine, with crisp red fruit flavors and a tangy snap of blood orange providing focus and lift. Finishes with bright, mineral-tinged strawberry and pomegranate notes.

Decanter, April 2006 North American Pinot Noir Review – 2004 Lachini 'Ana Vineyard' Pinot Noir 3 STARS / RECOMMENDED

Good fruity aroma - clean and fresh. Nice Pinot character but could use more tartness. Lovely flavour. 2--5 years (BSP)
