Winemaker: Peter Rosback

The 'S' or 'la Sorella della famiglia' ('sister' to our Family Estate Pinot Noir) is crafted by Peter Rosback of Sineann for Lachini Vineyards with 100% fruit from our Estate vineyard. It is perhaps the most "classical" of our 'S' Pinot Noir's since the initial 'S' beginning in 2002. Offers great structure, acidity and balance.

TASTING NOTES

The 2007 'S' was harvested between one to one and a half weeks later than our 2007 Estate Pinot Noir. Our most reserved, balanced 'S' Pinot to date. It is seductive and feminine in the restrained nose, yet offers a round mid-palate and somewhat lengthy finish. Heady aromas of ripe Bing cherries and a touch of toasted oak are interwoven nicely with the generous acids and soft tannins. Finishes lively, with a bit more structure. The savory finish of 30+ seconds is quite delectable. Should age 5-15 years +.

REVIEWS

Stephen Tanzer's International Wine Cellar, May/June 2008 – 2006 Lachini Vineyards 'S' Pinot Noir 88 POINTS

Dark red. Smoky raspberry and dark cherry aromas are complemented by cured meat and fresh rose. Fleshy red and dark fruit flavors display good depth and a slight bitter edge, with supple tannins framing the fruit. Finishes broad and sweet, with good cling and length.
